

INTERPOL Washington, U.S. National Central Bureau

Program Analyst Milena Amaya

Milena Amaya serves as Senior Program Analyst (PA) for Border Security Division (BSD), INTERPOL Washington, the United States National Central Bureau (USNCB). Her duties include operations, financial and logistical coordination, and execution of all matters concerning Project TERMINUS support globally.

Prior to joining the BSD team, Milena worked in the USNCB INTERPOL Administrative Service Division (ASD), as a Program Analyst where she evaluated the effectiveness of existing programs and developed the agency's policies and procedures.

Milena previously served as Adjudication Officer (AO) and Management Program Analyst (MPA) in the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS), New York Field Office and the Office of Investigations (OI); Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE), in both, Enforcement and Removal Operations (ERO) and Homeland Security Investigations (HSI), Office of International Affairs (OIA) where she evaluated the effectiveness of existing programs and provided leadership with recommendations for making decisions on administrative and operational programmatic aspects of management to ensure organizational efficiency.

Milena's academic credentials include a Master's of Art in Criminal Justice a Master's of Art Certificate in Terrorism Studies a Bachelor of Art in International Criminal Justice, and many commendations for her service.